West Virginia Briefs

CHARLESTON: River shipments of Kanawha Valley will increase from this time. The Kelly's Creek Coal Company has completed arrangements by which it will ship its products by river to Point Pleasant, on the Ohio side, where an elevator and transferring plant has been completed by the West Virginia-Wabash Coal Company at a cost of $100,000.

CAMERON: Lindsey Hinerman, a young married man of this city, has been taken down with infantile paralysis and is in a critical condition at the Ohio Valley General Hospital, in Wheeling. This is the second case of the disease to develop here.

RICHWOOD: John Hall, a prominent resident of Rupert, was mistaken for a squirrel while out hunting with friends from Gauley Ridge and was peppered from head to foot with buckshot. He will recover.

WHEELING: Ohio county commissioners have been sued for $20,000 damages by Warren Brothers for alleged infringements of patent rights in the manufacture and application of road surfacing material; and for $20,000 damages by Joseph Pierson for personal injuries in an automobile accident.

CHARLESTON: About forty coal cars, damaged by the recent floods, are lying along the banks of Birch Creek, a tributary of Coal river. The mining companies in this territory report this week that the car shortage has interfered greatly with their operations, and it is impossible to run full time until a sufficient number of cars are available.

KEYSER: R. W. Thrush, county superintendent of schools, has arranged for a Mineral county school rally here October 26 with a street parade, a football game and other events. Special trains will be run to convey school pupils and faculties from different towns.

CHARLESTON: The Service and Sales Company of Huntington has been granted a charter of incorporation by the secretary of state. The authorized capital is $5,000. The incorporators are J. A. Ripley, Cecil E. Ebert, Hans Matts, M. J. Ferguson and Henry L. Coe, all of Huntington.

FAIRMONT: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Callabue have just celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary at their home near Colfax. He is 82 and she is 78.

WELLSBURG: Miss Gertrude Britt, 19, applied at the county clerk's office for a license to her marriage to George Harris, saying that the prospective bridegroom was too busy to accompany her. It was refused, but Harris appeared later and it was then issued.

FAIRMONT: A Fairmont bakery is baking a ton of fruit cake for the Christmas trade. It will be allowed to ripen two months before being put on the market.

WHEELING: Because he lost a bet on the world's series J. W. Schultz, local optician, must live on baked beans for a week. He can eat nothing with the beans but one piece of bread at each meal.

CHARLESTON: F. E. Wirst, section foreman, and J. T. Stump, laborer, were killed at Matewan, Mingo county, on the Norfolk and Western railroad, when a motor car and freight train collided.

FAIRMONT: Miners, thousands of them, are wanted in the Fairmont field at once. The last few months has seen such an increase in the soft coal trade that the mines are not able to keep up with orders. There is not a mine in this section that is not running short-handed.

CHARLESTON: For the first time in years the grand jury of Kanawha county has found it impossible to transact all the business of a court term in one week. More than 100 persons are charged with bootlegging, and hundreds of witnesses are being examined in connection with the charges.

CHARLESTON: More than 100 recruits, with assurance of immediate movement to Texas, are wanted in the Second West Virginia regiment. Orders issued last night from the department of the East for this regiment to get into readiness at once to entrain in the mobilization camp. The regiment has fifty-one officers and 1,130 men available, but a sufficient number of recruits will be accepted at once to bring the strength of each company up to 100 men. Travel rations for a six days' journey were ordered by Major C. R. Morgan, camp quartermaster.

MONTGOMERY: Enoch Moore, of this city, has been killed by a negro at Stanaford. Five bullets were fired.

CHARLESTON: Judges Charles A. Woods and Peter C. Pritchard, of the United States circuit court of appeals, have remanded to Judge Benjamin F. Keller, of the United States court for the southern district of West Virginia, trial of the case of the Tri-State Power and Milling Company against the Virginia Power Company. They decided that a full bench was not necessary in the case, which involves the defendant's right to condemn land to be used for construction of power dams.

MOUNDSVILLE: A riot occurred in the high school when Prof. Thompson was attacked by twenty boys while chastising Ralph Hemphill, 18. He was severely beaten. The boys allege Thompson was choking Hemphill and they intervened. A special meeting of the board of education has been called.
